

THE CONSTRUCTION
SPECIFICATIONS INSTITUTE
Atlanta Chapter

Professional Development Committee
Presents

Federal ADA Regulation Changes

February 7th 2012 8am to 1pm
Crowne Plaza Atlanta Perimeter
6345 Powers Ferry Road, Atlanta Ga. 30339
AIA and HSW Credits

Please join CSI for a very timely CEU. ADA regulations will be changing and effective March 2012. This seminar will have you ready for the upcoming changes. We are honored to have Catherine Leigh Graham, MEBME, bring this seminar to us. Her knowledge and work in this field will get you and your firm the tools you need to navigate the upcoming changes.

Costs and times include Continental Breakfast and Box Lunch

Go to www.csialanta.org to register

Type of Attendee	Early registration	Day of Event
CSI member	25.00	30.00
Non-member	30.00	35.00
Student	20.00	20.00
Group Discount- Firms bringing 5 or more associates = $20.00 Ea.

Contact Karen Fravert (205-215-8305) or Brent Redmon (678-618-8503) with questions.

BIO: Catherine Leigh Graham, MEBME - Ms. Graham has been performing ADA assessments and consultations to ensure compliance in both new construction and renovation since 1993 with her private consulting group. She teaches ADA compliance courses with respect to buildings and public rights of way to building code officials, architects, fire marshals, etc. She currently works for the University of South Carolina through a Centers for Disease Control grant and manages all ADA compliance and education activities. She has presented on ADA topics at Congressional Briefings on Disability in Washington, DC as well as nationwide for the American Public Health Association.